YULETIDE CELEBRATED IN RICHMOND BY MERRY FETES

ENTIRE CITY IN GALA ATTIRE

Richmond is making merry today on the day of all days of the year—the anniversary of the birth of the Christ child, who gave his life so that mankind would not perish from the earth.

Churches, clubs, fraternal organizations, lodges, service clubs and others held celebrations this week. Churches held some of the most beautiful and impressive Christmas services that were ever held in Richmond. Impressive programs, pageants and musicals were presented.

Some plan special services today.

Lodges held their Christmas parties during the week preceding Christmas and on Christmas eve.

These celebrations were featured by programs of songs and Christmas stories. And every one had a big Christmas tree. Santa Claus was kind and spent a busy week visiting each organization and presenting the guests with Yuletide presents.

Children of the city were guests at a theater party held last Saturday in a local showhouse. Each of the tots received a gift.

Other parties, especially of children, were held by several local organizations.

Service clubs at their luncheon meetings, also took time to observe the anniversary of Christ's birth.

Dreams Realized

THOUSANDS OF Richmond children dreamed last night of this coming of the merry old gentleman with his bag of toys. This morning, their dreams were realized.

ONE YEAR AGO TODAY

Today is a day of merriment and also of memories. In your home, thoughts drift back to loved ones, while in Richmond and the outside world, thoughts are revived of outstanding events. The RECORD-HERALD of Dec. 25, 1928, tells us.

POWER SERVICE in Richmond and the entire east bay was interrupted by heavy ice forming on the power lines near Crockett, snapping off a large number of the wires.

ENGLAND was rejoicing over the recovering of King George, whose serious illness took a turn for the better during the holiday season.

HENRY J. CURRY, political figure in the life of Contra Costa county was found dead at his desk. Curry was coroner of the county from 1892 to 1906.

REYNOLD CARLSON, Secretary of the Richmond Y. M. C. A., was married to Miss Ruth Carter Collier of Berkeley.

GOV. C. C. YOUNG asked for the observance of a safe and sane Christmas.

CLINTON KILPATRICK and Emma Howard were married in the First Baptist church in Berkeley.

MIDWEST TO HAVE WHITE YULETIDE

CHICAGO, Dec. 24—(U.P.)—Window candles gleamed yellow through gently falling snow over most of the middle west tonight to welcome Christmas with its traditional winter snow storm.

The snow fell sporadically in almost the whole area except in the region surrounding Kansas City where autumn-like temperatures barred the ground and made the shiny new sleds under many a Christmas tree useless for the time being.

Enough snow was on the ground elsewhere to satisfy even the most particular of Santa Claus' reindeer and to assure the bewhiskered saint of excellent traction for the runners of his sleigh.

Temperatures for the most part stood just at the freezing point, the mildest weather in more than a week. Last minute shoppers were beset with ankle deep wallows of slush on all city streets, even though 10,000 men in Chicago alone were working to clear away the snow.

Other thousands of laborers worked for railroads and highway commissioners in an effort to make resumption of inter-city travel possible. Most roads were cleared, although they remained slick enough to cause countless accidents.

Railroad travel, after several days of heartbreaking toll on the part of employees and with trains as much as 12 hours late because of blocked tracks and frozen switches, at last returned almost to normalcy.

Antioch Has Rabies Epidemic

ANTIOCH, Dec. 24—City Health Officer, Dr. J. R. Blackshaw today warned all dog owners to keep their pets in quarantine.

The warning followed the ascertained detection of a fanatical case of rabies, discovered yesterday by Dr. J. E. Quinn, local veterinarian.

Upon the uncovering of the first case of rabies several days ago, Mayor James Donlon called a special meeting of the city council. An emergency resolution was passed, instructing city policemen to kill all unleashed and unmuzzled dogs found on the streets.

Miss Wave Redman Suffers Relapse

Yuletide season will not be a gala event at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Redman, due to the relapse of their daughter, Wave Redman, suffering from burns in the baby hospital in Oakland.

The setback according to Dr. Sidney K. Smith, U. C. psychiatrist, is caused by excitement due to the approach of Christmas.

The patient has been in a coma since last Friday.

Mrs. W. Selfs Mother Sick

The serious illness of the mother of Mrs. William Self, has called Mr. Self and her husband to her bedside at Solma.

The Selfs reside at 215 First street, Richmond.

Officer Floyd Hurt In Double Crash

PATROLMAN STRUCK BY AUTO

Thomas D. Floyd, Richmond police officer is in the Cottage hospital, suffering from cuts, bruises and possible internal injuries received when he was struck by a car at San Pablo and Garvin avenues last night.

J. J. Murtha, 1622 Sherman avenue, Alameda, the driver of the car which is alleged to have hit Floyd, was being questioned by police late last night. Murtha was badly cut on the hands and face.

Floyd was dispatched to San Pablo and Garvin avenues early last night when a report was made to police headquarters that an automobile accident had occurred at the intersection.

Upon arriving at the scene according to witnesses, Floyd got out of his car and walked to the wreck and interviewed one of the drivers concerned.

Murtha, driving toward Oakland, crashed into a telephone pole near the scene of the wreck, police report. His car careened wildly and hit Floyd knocking him to the pavement, the report stated.

Floyd was rushed to the Cottage hospital where he was treated by Dr. H. L. Carpenter. Murtha was taken to Hospital Richmond, where several had cuts on his face were attended to.

Wales Prince Home For Yule

LONDON, Dec. 24—(U.P.)—The Prince of Wales today disregarded recent warnings to "play safe" and flew part of the way to Sandringham Castle to spend Christmas with King George and Queen Mary.

The remainder of the royal family, Prince Henry, the Duke and Duchess of York, Prince George and Princess Mary and her husband, Viscount Lascelles—proceeded by train.

The royal Yule party planned for Wednesday will be in deep contrast with conditions a year ago, when the King lay seriously ill.

The King's family will attend Christmas services at St. Magdalena's church near the castle.

Portuguese Troops End Island Revolt

HONGKONG, Dec. 24—(U.P.)—Loyal Portuguese troops were in control of the island of Macao, 35 miles west of here, today after quelling a mutiny with the use of heavy arms.

Garrison's in four forts situated in the Portuguese dependency planned a revolt for more pay and improved living conditions. Only one garrison actually mutinied, however, throwing its officers out of the fort and imprisoning the non-commissioned officers.

Loyal troops finally opened fire on the fort and the rebels surrendered unconditionally.

"Tough" Judge Has Christmas Spirit

OKLAHOMA CITY, Okla., Dec. 24 (U.P.)—Judge G. W. Clark, whose year brought him in contact with many men charged with bank robbery, was noted for sentencing them drastically.

Eddie Fine came before the judge today, charged with robbing a drug store.

"Five years in the Granite Reformatory," pronounced the judge. Eddie stood there a moment. Tears began to stream down his face. His parents were in a room. Part of their support depended on the boy.

There were the shouts of children out of the and a wreath of hol-

Burglar Slain By Police In Battle

BERKELEY, Dec. 24—William Berger, 43-year-old carpenter, ex-convict and burglar, was shot to death early this morning, when he attempted to flee from a posse of police on Stannage avenue.

Led by Capt. A. J. Greening, the posse began their watch for what had been known as the "hole in the wall burglar" early this morning. The culprit had been named this because of his habit of cutting into a store from adjoining vacant quarters.

Six times according to police, Berger made trips to his house, each time loaded with loot. On the sixth trip, Sgt. Walter Johnson shouted to him to "halt."

Pursued by shots from the police, Berger fled into a vacant lot. Willard Schmidt, patrolman, clerk of the Berkeley police force, who came with a call for reinforcements, fired once from his shotgun, and Berger dropped in his tracks.

He was later identified as the man sought for a long series of Eastbay robberies, through fingerprints sent to the International

FIRE FAILS TO HALT PARTY

WASHINGTON, Dec. 24—(U.P.)—A general alarm fire in the executive offices of the White House which for a time threatened to eat its way throughout the entire west wing of the mansion, brought a sudden climax tonight to Christmas eve festivities of President Herbert Hoover and his family.

The fire broke out while the president was entertaining a group of cabinet children around the White House fireside and the peacefulness of the evening was suddenly changed to one of turmoil both within and without the mansion.

A tiny flame, which it was understood resulted from an under-circuit between the walls in an upper room of the executive offices suddenly spread until the entire section of the building was in flames.

Every available piece of fire apparatus in the city was called to the scene.

Lawrence Rieley, one of Hoover's secretaries, was one of the first on the scene, directing the work of the firemen. Valuable files stored in the newly equipped storage rooms were saved.

Hoover Present

The president himself was right on the scene when the fire broke out. He watched the blaze from a corner of the roof of the wing between the executive offices proper and the White House. His son, Allen, home from Harvard University for the holidays also was a much interested observer.

The executive office, which was partially destroyed tonight was built during the Roosevelt administration. Last summer it was completely demolished at a cost of $55,000. Most of the new furnishings and a large part of the offices were badly damaged by the water which rose to a depth of about a foot.

Despite all efforts of firemen, the water ran into the office of the president, damaging expensive carpets on the floor. The president's desk was somewhat battered.

Hoover Lost Nothing

George Akerson, secretary to the president said the chief executive lost nothing of value in the flames.

The fire broke out just as the children at the party were beginning to taste a delicious desert.

Mrs. Hoover carried on the program as if nothing had happened. The children left the White House at 9:30 when the fire was under control. The fire was discovered at 7:45 p. m.

Southern Church Leader Succumbs

NEW ORLEANS, Dec. 24—(U.P.)—Bishop Davis Sessums, head of the Protestant Episcopal church of Louisiana, died at his home here at 5:05 p. m. today after a sudden heart attack.

Bishop Sessums was 71 years old. He had been head of the Louisiana Diocese of the Episcopal church for more than 10 years, and had just recently returned from the biennial convention of the church at Atlantic City.

Liquor Suspect Pays $400 Fine

G. A. Andreani, 251 Fifth street, Richmond, was fined $40 by Police Judge J. F. Plank of El Cerrito yesterday on a charge of possession and transportation of liquor.

Andreani was arrested by El Cerrito police Monday night. A quantity of liquor was found in his possession, police reports show.

MERRY CHRISTMAS —TO ALL—

CHRISTMAS has one great lesson for the world. It is this: OUR OWN HAPPINESS REALLY DEPENDS ON HOW MUCH WE HELP TO MAKE OTHERS HAPPY.

Think it over. Grasp the full significance of that statement and you will realize that never were you so happy; never were you so satisfied with yourself as when you voluntarily did some good turn for a fellow human.

We often get our values confused in this world. We often forget that true happiness—the thing we really seek—lies not in ministering unto self, but unto our fellow creatures.

CHRISTMAS is an occasion that brings us to our senses, that makes us realize after all we are just in the world not strictly as individuals, but as co-operating members of a great family whose hopes and aspirations are one and whose happiness is mutual.

LET CHRISTMAS DAY fix in the minds of each one of us the eternal truth that the more I help my brother to be happy, the happier I am going to be myself.

WAR VETERANS APPEAL TO CONGRESS

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 24.—Speaking for the World War veterans of California, state commander, Clarence L. Kincaid of Hollywood and other officials of the American Legion in this state have appealed to the California delegation in Congress to back the eight major national legislative efforts to be made on behalf of the ex-service men and women of the United States at the present new session of Congress.

Increased appropriations for military, naval and civil aviation and the completion of the five-year building program for national defense are included in the legislative program which the American Legion seeks to have enacted at this session, according to Kincaid.

Creation of a separate veterans' committee in the Senate similar to the one in the House of Representatives; the consolidation of the Veterans' Bureau, Pension Bureau and the Soldiers' Home and the creation of a medical corps in the Veterans' bureau are favored by the Legionnaires and messages will be sent to each member of the California delegation in the House and to Senators Hiram W. Johnson and Samuel M. Shortridge asking support for the program.

Amendments to the legislative program include: Amendments to the World War Veterans' act as follows: Dependency pay increases for helpless veterans; full insurance coverage for recovered permanent totals; insurance removal remedied; sub-standard insurance for disabled who are not now insurable; time for insurance suits eliminated; arrested tuberculosis award to be additional to other disability awards; arrested tuberculosis award amended to overcome comptroller's decision; dependency pay for permanent disability; presumptive provisions for constitutional diseases; compensation claim deemed application for all benefits; prescription of service connection conclusive in certain cases, and the repeal of section conclusive in certain cases, and the repeal of sections 206 and 209.

MALMOE, Sweden.—A Swedish toy balloon has just made a safe crossing of the North Sea and landed in Yorkshire in England. It was given away, with many hundred others, by a department store in Malmoe, in the southern Swedish province of Scania and let loose by a youngster there.

New License Law Hits Speculators
SACRAMENTO—(U.P.)—Contractors who build homes for speculation on the pretense that they are to be used as their own dwellings aren't fooling anybody. They must take out a license under California's new contractors' license law.

Such is the opinion of Attorney General U. S. Webb, in answer to a query by the state department of professional standards. If the facts show, said Webb, "that an unlicensed builder has not in good faith built the house for his own use but for purposes of speculation," then he is lawfully engaged in the contracting business.

 Even if you've never seen the inside of a raccoon coat or don't know which end of a football to kick, you'll give three cheers for "So This Is College," which scored a field goal when it opened yesterday at the Fox-California theater.

 This big collegiate feature is another Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer 100 per cent talking, singing, dancing picture and easily takes the place at the head of its class in audience entertainment value.

 Sam Wood, who directed and co-authored the film, is largely to be credited with its success since the picture stands upon its own feet and uses no star's popularity to meet the exigencies of a critical box office.

 Indeed, the cast is one entirely unknown to motion picture audiences but one that decidedly will find great favor with the film fans.
 Robert Montgomery and Elliott Nugent, who share the leading roles, are juveniles of wide note on Broadway. Sally Star, a new "find," makes her debut in the collegiate talkie.

 Also Talking Comedy, "Port
 Whines" and Sound Fables.

Seeing Stars

 "HOLLYWOOD REVUE," coming to the Fox-California theater tomorrow, has the greatest collection of stars in history, according to the producers. Here are a few of them (left to right) Marion Davies, Buster Keaton and Joan Crawford.

Kiwanis Club
 Meets Tomorrow

 The session of the Richmond Kiwanis club planned for today has been postponed until tomorrow noon.

 The meeting will be held at the Hotel Carquinez. At that time, Lee
 Wharton, newly elected president, will preside.

Rush Over At Post Office

 The Christmas rush mail at the Richmond postoffice has been cleared and the bulk of the mail has been moved. Postmaster James N. Long stated yesterday.

 There will be no mail delivery today, except special delivery and perishable.

Yes, There Is a Santa Claus!

But he is not an old gentleman dolled up in whiskers.

 He is clean shaven, aggressive, business-like—in short, he looks a great deal like a composite picture of the Richmond business man.

 He brings presents to cities that have been good throughout the year. And by being good we mean cities that work hard, cooperate, look forward and make definite, concrete plans that are capable of realization.

 Yes, Richmond has a Santa Claus and he did bring presents this year.

 And if the members of the Richmond Chamber of Commerce will take a look in the mirror they will see there a very good likeness of their city's Santa Claus. It was through their own cooperation that we received our sack full of gifts this Christmas.
 We have secured new industries; we have built and opened the Parr-Richmond Terminal; we have connected that part of our waterfront with streets, sewers, water, power and railroad transportation; we have secured a radio station; and we have laid the groundwork for a still greater development along many lines in the year to come.

 Yes, there is a Santa Claus. It should be a source of pride to the forward-looking men of Richmond that they have been their own Santa Claus and have filled their own stockings with all these civic improvements.

Suit Filed To Prevent Sale Of Property

MARTINEZ, Dec. 24—N. E. Holty today filed suit against the Mercantile Building Loan association, the Oakland Title and Guaranty company and Beulah Feldhaus, an agent of the corporation, seeking to restrain them from selling Richmond property valued at $15,000 for alleged failure to pay loan installments.

Defendants have been cited by Judge H. V. Alvarado to appear in court Monday to show cause why the order should not be issued. Holty alleges that he borrowed $3000 on Dec. 22, 1928, and assigned a trust deed for the Richmond property to secure the note. He claims to have turned over to the defendants $1150 for taxes and installment on the loan. He says the defendants refused to render an accounting.

Brothers Meet After 31 Years

After a separation of 31 years, Barney W. and George Solomon of 661 Third street, met their brother Peter D. Solomon of Durango, Colo., recently.

When the eastern brother dropped in unexpectedly upon the Richmond men, it was several minutes before they could recognize each other.

The last time they saw each other, was in Durango, Colo., where Peter now resides. At that time George migrated to the Klondike and Barney trekked to Arizona.

The eastern brother has left for his home after a two weeks visit with his relatives.

Protect Your Furniture

A $1.25 to Rid Your Home of Moths May Save You Hundreds of Dollars.

MORTEMOTH KILLS MOTHS

The gas from Mortemoth crystals not only protects your furniture for a long time, but contact with it kills all moths, their eggs and their dangerous larvae in furniture which is already infested.

The proper method of using Mortemoth crystals is to tie them in small sacks, and to place these sacks down in the channel of the piece, as deeply as possible, behind the cushions, so that, upon expansion, the gas will spread and fill the spring units in the back and in the bottom of the piece.

When the sacks are empty, fill them again.

ALL RICHMOND CELEBRATES YULETIDE

War Veteran Party

War Veterans of Richmond did their bit by holding a gigantic Christmas party at the Memorial hall.

Every heart in Richmond seems to thrill today with the same thought—"Let's make Christmas a merry one."

And the needy of the city were not forgotten on this day of all days. Numerous local organizations remembered the wards of the county; children at the Sunshine camp, and those unfortunate in our city who otherwise would have spent a drab, cheerless Christmas.

And the boys who sacrificed their health to a great cause in the turbulent years of 1917 and 1918 were not left off the list.

Gifts And Goodies

Hundreds of inmates at government hospitals in San Francisco, Livermore, Mare Island and other points will be cheered today with gifts of candies, fruits, etc., and magazines.

The Richmond War Veterans and their auxiliaries remembered the boys at the hospitals. Christmas boxes for the boys at Letterman and Mare Island hospital were filled by the group and were sent for Christmas day.

The tots at the Sunshine camp and the County preventorium will receive gifts from many local organizations.

Gifts of clothing, foods, money have been sent to them. One organization here made playthings for the children during its spare time.

Another group sent money to the camp, to be used as the supervisors see fit. Gifts of clothing, foods, money have been sent to them. One organization here made playthings for the children during its spare time.

Still another club here decided to do away with a Christmas party and instead send the money that it would have used for an entertainment, to the camp and wards of the county.

The Salvation Army, the Y. M. C. A., the Richmond Health Center and the Social Service bureau are making individual efforts today to bring cheer to many homes.

These organizations will distribute gifts of clothing and food to the unfortunates. Throughout the day, workers from these organizations will be busy in that task of cheerful giving—doing their bit to make Christmas one that will long be remembered in homes that would have otherwise spent a drab, cheerless day.

Fire Causes Small Damage At Local Plant

Fire believed to have been caused by overheating did slight damage to an asphalt still at the certain-tred products plant here early this morning.

Pipe sheathings and a boardwalk above the still were slightly burned. Engine two and truck one of the San Pablo fire department responded to the alarm.

The still is used to melt asphalt and other material which is used for covering roofing paper. The hot liquid is transferred from the still to the covering room by a series of pipes.

Fire Chief William P. Cooper of the Richmond fire department was in charge of the fire fighters at the scene of the blaze.

Best Funeral Held Yesterday

Funeral services for Asa W. Best, pioneer resident of Richmond and Contra Costa county, who has already done in the large eastern centers where it has been held, said Rooker. "Not only should new industries be attracted because of it, but the existing industries will be revitalized. It is a known fact that large industries almost always show a preference for natural gas when it can be obtained because it is the ideal fuel—entailing a minimum of labor, giving very high temperatures, and lending itself to easy handling. Those industrial and commercial firms who have kept themselves informed of the trend of events are now turning to gas, more and more as the most adaptable fuel for their mass production methods."

"With the advent of this natural gas into the Richmond industrial region, and with its high heat content available for industrial purposes, it is not difficult to discern in the immediate future a

PROSPERITY, INDUSTRY TO BE AIDED BY NATURAL GAS

Richmond's prosperity and industrial growth will be greatly enhanced by the serving of natural gas for manufacturing and domestic purposes.

This is the view expressed yesterday by George N. Rooker, director of the Richmond Chamber of Commerce, and district manager for the Pacific Gas and Electric company.

Richmond pointed out that this city will be the terminus of the first pipe line of the new gas system, now nearing completion.

The line comes northward from Kettleman Hills through Pacheco pass, forming a viaduct at Millitas, one pipe coming up the north side of the bay through Oakland and ending at Richmond, the other continuing up the peninsula to San Francisco.

Aids Industry

"There can be no doubt in that this new fuel will aid greatly the industrial development of Richmond and Contra Costa county as it has already done in the large eastern centers where it has been held, said Rooker. "Not only should new industries be attracted because of it, but the existing industries will be revitalized. It is a known fact that large industries almost always show a preference for natural gas when it can be obtained because it is the ideal fuel—entailing a minimum of labor, giving very high temperatures, and lending itself to easy handling. Trinity Church Entertains At Yule Program

The Trinity Episcopal church entertained last night at a Christmas party in the church hall. Miss Catherine McCracken, Miss Jane Moyle and Miss Virginia Lee were in charge.

A feature of the program was a pageant "The Soldier of Bethlehem." Santa Claus attended the party and presented gifts to the guests.

Vanetti Funeral Held Yesterday

Final rites for Joseph Vanetti, of El Cerrito, were held yesterday morning from St. John's church, El Cerrito. Interment was in St. Joseph's cemetery. Deceased was an employee of the Stauffer Chemical company.

Richardson Rites Set For Thursday

Charles B. Richardson, 73, died at his home in Richmond yesterday. Deceased was unmarried. He had lived here 15 years.

Funeral services will be held Thursday under the direction of Wilson and Kratzer chapel. Cremation will be in Berkeley crematory.

An ideal fuel like natural gas. The largest eastern factory owners have been accustomed to use this fuel, and when they find it is available in Richmond they are certain to look with favor upon this community when making their plans for a Pacific coast location."

Peace Suspect Freed On Bail

J. E. Healy, of Albany, was released on $200 bail by El Cerrito police yesterday on a charge of disturbing the peace.

Police report that Healy was involved in an automobile accident on San Pablo avenue near Cutting boulevard and left his car standing in the street. The garage which is nearby, Healy returned to the garage and tried to start a fight with Beck for moving his car, police report.

Excessive slipping of the clutch on your car will damage the plates beyond repair, according to the California State Automobile association.

"Happiest Human"

Gen. Smuts, who delivered the Rhodes Memorial lectures this year at Oxford, declared, in speaking of the African Negro, that he had remained largely a child type, with a child psychology and outlook. "A child-like human cannot be bad, for in high spiritual matters we are bidden to be like little children," said the General. The African was also the happier human that Gen. Smuts had never come across. In the primitive state, of course. The droves of clacks employed in the South African mines and ovens are far from happy. Drawn into the white man's civilization, and ruthlessly exploited by him, the African black is being turned into a pseudo-European. This is not much better than turning him into a beast, which was the former policy pursued with regard to him. First they looked on Africa upon the black as hardly human, and he was treated little better than a slave. Then suddenly he was elevated to a position of equality with the white. The political system of the natives was ruthlessly destroyed in order to incorporate them in the white system. Now, Smuts came to England to say that both systems were wrong. The policy in regard to the colored race in Africa should, of course, be

Latin Replaced

The new edition of the Index, a list of books and publications prohibited by the Roman Catholic Church, is printed in Italian. This is the first time in the history of the church that Latin has been superseded by one of its daughters. The fact has upset the Latinists of Europe and the Pope. The more serious present Pontiff is a noted Latinist himself, and but recently recommended study of the language to a large delegation of French students. Some see in it an end to Latin as the language of the church, and thence its declining use in ecclesiastical gatherings in Rome. Still seeing that the majority of the Cardinals are of Italian origin and that most of the foreign prelates commend a sufficient fluency of Italian to express themselves, this is not to be wondered at. Once it seemed that Prepo would replace Latin as the language of the church, as it was already the medium of expression in international gatherings of diplomacy. But Cardinal Gasparri put an end to the hope when he addressed the Ambassadors in Rome, on the occasion of the coronation of the Roman Quetzalcoatl in Italy. This was an unheard-of departure and France, considering consternation in France, considered

ASK US ANOTHER

OVERMENT census takers next year, in addition to firing the usual questions, will ask: 1—Value of home, if owned, or monthly rental, if rented? 2—Does the home own a radio set? 3—Age at first marriage? 4—Whether actually at work?

We think this is a very good idea. But while the census takers are finding out our things, why not go to the bottom of our personal affairs? After standing off magazine agents, who come their way through college; vacuum cleaners, who come through high pressure insurance men, it would be a pleasure to answer a flock of personal questions and not have to buy anything in the end.

Doing as the Government is going to do, by kindly giving us a questionnaire, a complete third degree for all our citizens?

In choosing partners have a cardboard holey wreath—a large cut-out will do—suspended in the doorway and through it hang red and green paper streamers, extending to the floor. At one end of each streamer paste two small seals, back to back, and at the other end paste the star seal so that the seals stand on one side of the doorway and the ladies on the other. At the signal each is to select a streamerpartner, those who are to be grasped by the ladies and the men are to take the bell ends. Cut the wreath between the streamers to fall and when these are unfastened the couple holding the same streamer become partners.

It would not be a real Christmas party without a game of blind man's buff, but a new version might be introduced. Have each player, except the blind man, wear a bracelet or small bells. The task of the blind man to have these jingled close to his ears and when he extends his hand feel only air. When he feels something he says "What is it?" and the person he has caught must respond, and this gives him time to guess who it is by the sound of the bells.

The voice. The blind man's bracelet to the blind man and is blindfolded in turn.

SCHOOLGIRL wants suggestions for the family gifts, and stipulates they must be expensive.

Daddy might like a pipe-rest; he can get them with an ash tray bin. Perhaps you can afford a more for Dad's gift, and he may appreciate a combination set of shoe clasp and hat brush in a case.

Buy mother a set of kitchen brooms that come with a decorated cover to hang them on. She might like a doormat or a flower bowl.

Wouldn't sister like a box of attractive holiday stationery to use with her school letters? How would she like a pair of slippers?

Wouldn't sister like a set of little sister like a hair spray bottle with scented curls?

Baby brother would not mind tea bath if he had one of those blue colored clown sponges that make funny antics when squeezed.

Here are the block pillows in big cotton covers, some with fringe, so soft and light that the toddler move it about. The higher priced ones have animal appliques.

There is a lot of things to consider, book mark, small picture address book, silk darning kit, shoe brush, shoe polish, shoe brush or shoe polisher for traveling.
